

NVIC Commentaries Covering Public Health Laws, Quarantine and Detention

Parents Deserve to Know More Than School Vaccination Rates

If, in the name of transparency and the public health, government health officials are going to identify and demonize schools with a vaccine coverage rate of less than 95 percent, then parents deserve to know the truth and nothing but the truth about the health of children attending different schools. NVIC Says New California Law Threatens Human and Civil Rights in America

"The California legislature and Governor Brown have failed California families, who do not deserve to be segregated and discriminated against based on vaccination and health care choices that parents make in the best interest of their minor children," said Fisher. Read the full article »

Blackmail and the Medical Vaccine Exemption

This cruel utilitarian rationale, also known as "the ends justifies the means," has been used by public health officials and medical trade groups to narrow the medical vaccine exemption so that, today, almost no medical condition qualifies as an "official" reason (contraindication) for a doctor to grant someone a medical exemption to vaccination. The Vaccine Culture War in America: Are You Ready?

Even if you and your children have willingly received every government recommended vaccine today, if non-medical exemptions are removed from U.S. vaccine laws, you will have no choice if you decide you don't want to use every new liability-free vaccine that government recommends tomorrow. Are you ready to fight for your freedom? Read the full article »

Adults Targeted as Federal Government Prepares to Track the Unvaccinated

The basis of the NAIP rests on Healthy People 2020 Goals, many of which are arbitrary. These goals have no legal authority over your healthcare decisions and are being used by government officials to shape public health policy, which in turn is spurring legal mandates to force you to comply with them. NVIC Calls for Vaccine Policy and Law Reform to Protect Human and Civil Rights

In the past three years, laws have been passed in the states of Washington, California and Oregon requiring parents filing non-medical exemptions to either undergo state mandated vaccine “education” or beg for signatures from pediatricians already refusing to provide medical care to children who do not get all 69 doses of 16 federally recommended vaccines right on schedule. No Pharma Liability? No Vaccine Mandates

From now on – unless we stand up and draw the line on vaccine mandates - the government can legally use police powers to force every American to get hundreds of vaccinations or be punished while those, who are hurt by vaccination, can be more easily swept under the rug and left to fend for themselves. WA State Vaccine Law Threatens Exemptions and Violates Privacy

The proposed new law will legally require doctors and nurses to personally sign off on all religious or personal belief exemptions to vaccination filed with the state. Parents seeking non-medical exemptions will be required to include a signature from a vaccine provider on the exemption form stating that they have been given vaccine benefit and risk information. Forcing Flu Shots on Health Care Workers: Who Is Next?

Mandatory flu shots not just for doctors and nurses, but for everyone. An exception could be made if the doctors in charge approve a “medical exemption” to vaccination, which, today, is about as hard to get as a job. Read the full article »

2010 Needs a Fearless Conversation About Vaccination

The fear, prejudice and intolerance defining the first decade of the 21st century was eventually turned on parents of vaccine injured children, for asking public health authorities how many vaccines their children were going to be forced to take in the name of protecting national security and the public health. Pandemic H1N1 Swine Flu: What About You & Your Family?

On April 26, 2009, public health officials declared a national public health emergency in response to Influenza A (H1N1) "swine flu" virus. Federal and state public health laws may or may not be enforced by government officials during a national "public health emergency". Read the full article »

Power Grab by Federal Government Sets Stage for Forced Vaccination in America

A last minute deal with the Federal Government gets drug companies liability protection in Homeland Security Bill. The 484-page bill not only created a new department to handle terrorism threats, it also provided for the biggest reorganization of the federal government since the Department of Defense was created in 1947. Vaccine-Injured March on the Nation's Capital

On Wednesday, July 20, 2005, more than 600 parents of vaccine-injured children gathered on Capitol Hill for the Power of Truth march and rally to protest the continued use of mercury preservatives in vaccines given to children and pregnant women. Read the full article »

Power Grab by Federal Government Sets State for Forced Vaccination in America

The Homeland Security Bill was supposed to focus on setting up a new Department of Homeland Security to address the potential threat of future terrorist attacks against America in the wake of September 11, 2001. Yet, also provided for the biggest reorganization of the federal government since the Department of Defense was created in 1947 and removed the historic checks and balances that Congress has exercised over Presidential authority since the U.S. Constitution was written.
